MicroAge Peterborough celebrates 25th anniversary

Peterborough, ON, June 18, 2008 – MicroAge Peterborough, a member of Canada's leading franchise network of information technology solution providers, celebrated its 25th anniversary on June 11th at an event attended by over 200 people, including clients, local and regional dignitaries, IT manufacturers and numerous employees and colleagues past and present.

Commemorative plaques were presented to franchise owners Amy Simpson and Mark Bewsh by federal, provincial and municipal officials, and by Hartco LP, the MicroAge franchisor. "We are privileged to have an organization of MicroAge Peterborough's calibre as part of our national network of IT solution providers," said Patrick Waid, President, Hartco. "The outstanding customer service and overall business excellence that Amy, Mark and their entire team have demonstrated in Peterborough over the past 25 years have been exemplary. We congratulate them for their considerable achievements, and wish them continued success in the future."

In her address, Ms. Simpson thanked employees, vendor partners and others for their support and contributions, and focused much of her message on the company's customers. "It's because of you that we've been able to reach this tremendous milestone, and we remain committed to serving you to the best of our ability."
